Introduction	31
The effect of Taekwondo on the student.....	33
Main objective of Taekwondo training.....	35

THEORY

CHAPTER 1: ANALYSIS OF COMPETITION TAE KWON DO

FACTORS AFFECTING PERFORMANCE IN TAEKWONDO	41
Technique	41
Training priorities	41
Defence techniques	41
Attack techniques	41
Counterattack techniques	42
Counterattack in sparring	42
Direct counterattack	42
Tactic (direct counterattack)	43
Indirect counterattack	43
Advantages of indirect counterattack	43
Tactic (indirect counterattack)	44
Tactic.....	44
Identification and Detection	44
Score preservation	44
Attack	45
Defence and counterattack	45
Use of tactic	45
Physical condition.....	46
Endurance	46
Aerobic and general endurance	46
Anaerobic alactic capacity	46
Anaerobic lactic capacity	47
Speed-Power	47

Assembly abilities.....	48
Coordination, Synchronization, Neuromuscular Assembly, Kinesthesia	49
Flexibility, Suppleness, Agility	50
Balance, Aptitude	50
Rhythm, Kinesiology	50
Psychological factors.....	51
Mental State	51
Mental Training	51
The loneliness of competition	52
Psychomotor reaction	52
The meaning of psychomotor reaction (as opposed to only motor)	53
Perceptual Ability	53
Other important factors.....	54
Reaction time	54
Right brain functions (or integrated and holistic thinking)	55
Function of the brain hemispheres	55
Brain function in sparring	56
Mental process	57
Orientation ability	57
In conclusion	50
Bibliography.....	58

CHAPTER 2: THE BRAIN: DATA PROCESSING DECISION - MAKING

EFFECTS OF TAEKWONDO ON DEVELOPMENT OF THE BRAIN AND CENTRAL NERVOUS SYSTEM (CNS) IN CHILDREN.....	62
The role of the brain	62
Learning stages	62
Motor programs in the brain's macromemory	62
Effect of Taekwondo on maturity of the brain and the CNS	62
Brain and body, or thought and action	64
Thinking, stress, and health	65
Systematic exercise with different motor activities	65
Learning Taekwondo technique	66
Few words, more pictures!	66
The importance of video observation	66
Brain function in sparring	67
Nutrition and the brain	68
Data processing and decision-making	69
Phase 1: recognizing a stimulus.....	69
Recognizing a stimulus	69
Training for making a prompt and good decision	69
Phase 2: choice of response	69

Decision of the brain (choice of response) 69
Haste, rage, and thought-decision 70
Tactic in sparring 70
Stress and decision-making 71
Phase 3: response programming..... 71
 Response programming..... 71
Phase 4: execution of a decision..... 71
 Execution of a decision 71
Bibliography..... 72

CHAPTER 3: INJURIES: CAUSES - PREVENTION - TREATMENT

Introduction..... 76
Competition image of Taekwondo..... 76
A. Intrinsic risk factors and injuries 76
 Prevention - Treatment 76
 Physical condition 76
 Muscle imbalance 77
 Recent or older injuries 77
 Mental factors 78
 Injuries caused by lack of concentration 78
 Injuries caused by exceeding personal limits..... 78
 Anatomical abnormalities..... 78
 Physique..... 79
 Age 79
 Gender..... 79
 Uniqueness of Taekwondo athletes 79
 Nutrition 80
B. Extrinsic risk factors and injuries..... 81
 Prevention – Treatment..... 81
 Instructor 81
 Instructor and athletes 81
 Injuries in competition preparation 81
 Deficient or bad technique 82
 Absence of tactic in sparring (injury prevention) 83
 Sparring injuries 83
 Example 1: right instep impact-induced injury..... 84
 Example 2: Grade 1 left biceps femoris strain..... 84
 Anti-athletic – unsafe behavior 84
 Number of matches with recorded injuries..... 85
 Injuries and weight divisions..... 86
 Injuries in training caused by in adequate warm up..... 86

Recovery from exercise	86
Rehabilitation process	87
Fatigue (overtraining)	87
Athletes at risk of overtraining (fatigue) syndrome	87
Sports facilities	89
Risk factors associated with exercise	89
Climate conditions	89
Childhood injuries	90
Bibliography	91
C. Craniocerebral injuries	92
Skull and brain injuries	92
Assessment and treatment on competition grounds	92
Grade I concussion	92
Grade II concussion	92
Grade III concussion	92
Grade IV concussion	92
Causing Mechanisms of Craniocerebral Injuries	93
Main mechanisms of craniocerebral injuries	93
Linear and angular acceleration	93
Cerebral Knockout	94
Mild concussions	95
Focal Brain Injuries	95
Effects and Treatment of Concussions	96
Tongue falling back and airway release	96
Criteria for returning to athletic activity	98
Literature Review of Taekwondo Injuries	98
Protective equipment	98
Dollyo chagi	99
Cervical spine	99
Insidious complications	99
Research Results-Pre-knockout conditions	99
Knockout causes	99
Contributing factors to Knockouts	99
Research Results - Conditions during a knockout	100
Kicks that cause knockouts	100
Areas of Injury	100
Research Results - Post-knockout Symptoms	100
Results of Paraclinical Tests	100
Secondary Knockouts Factors	100
Championship level and knockouts	100
Match, round number and Craniocerebral Injuries	101
Conclusions	101

CHAPTER 4: BASIC PRINCIPLES: IMPROVING PERFORMANCE

A. Nutrition, body mass and performance..... 104

Nutrition, body mass and performance 104

Objectives of athletic nutrition 104

Body composition and performance..... 104

Energy and nutrients..... 104

Body mass loss and performance..... 105

Nutrition supplements..... 106

In conclusion 106

B. Kicking in the air (without aids)..... 106

Repetition of a kick 106

Application of force 106

Length of practice in the air..... 106

Knee extension..... 106

Knee flexion..... 107

Knee Joint..... 109

Trajectory of a kick..... 109

Kicking Control..... 109

Mistakes when completing a kick..... 109

Arms movement..... 110

C. Training on aids..... 110

 Advantages of training with aids 110

Training on wall-mounted and stall bars 110

Training in front of the mirror 110

Training on Hand-Mit kicking targets..... 111

Training on Coaching-Mit kicking targets..... 111

Training on kicking shields (Kick-Mit target)..... 111

Training on punching bags 111

 Advantages of Training on Chest Protectors..... 113

Training on chest protectors..... 114

D. Function and control of the muscular system 115

Muscular system..... 115

E. Balance..... 116

Balance..... 116

Rotation – Position of support leg 116

Support leg – Support base..... 116

Support Leg Rotation 117

I. For Anatomy Reasons 117

II. For Biomechanics Reasons..... 117

III. For Reasons of Balance and Power 117

F. Biomechanics..... 118

Angular velocity – Angular acceleration..... 118

Joint levers	118
G. Ideal moment for attack and counterattack.....	119
Attack	119
Direct counterattack	120
Indirect counterattack	120
Distance	120
H. Prediction – right decision–prompt reaction	120
Psychomotor reaction advantages	121
Improvement Methods	121
Special mental preparation	121
I. Breathing.....	122
Breathing regulation	122
Shout	122
Bibliography.....	123

CHAPTER 5: TEACHING – METHODOLOGY

A. Teaching - Methodology.....	126
Introduction	126
Differentiation of Techniques	126
Teacher or Instructor?	126
Individual development of an athlete	126
Preparation period	127
New skills (techniques) training principles	127
Introduction of a new technique by the instructor	127
Basic Teaching Principles	128
Correction of mistakes by the instructor	128
Correction of mistakes in experienced athletes	129
Conditions for successful correction of technical mistakes	129
B. Competition techniques curriculum tables	130
Bibliography.....	141

CHAPTER 6: TECHNICAL ELEMENTS OF KICKS EXECUTION

A. Technical elements of kicks	144
Introduction	144
Technical Elements of Kicks	144
B. Kicking and body stance.....	145
I. Front Kicks	145
Technical mistakes with front kicks	145
II. Spinning Kicks.....	146

Dwit chagi	146
Bandal Dollyo chagi	147
C. Differences in technique between Paltung chagi and Dollyo chagi	148
D. Differences in technique between Mirro chagi and Yop chagi	149
Bibliography.....	151

CHAPTER 7: SPARRING UNDER THE ELECTRONIC SCORING SYSTEM

CHANGES IN TRAINING AND SPARRING TECHNIQUE – TACTIC UNDER THE ELECTRONIC SCORING SYSTEM.....	154
A. Training and sparring priorities.....	154
Adjusting technique for electronic chest protectors	154
Attack	154
Defensive capacity	154
Counterattack	154
Important sparring factors	154
Emphasis on training	156
Role of the front leg	156
Dealing with the opponent's front leg	157
Priority kicks	157
When is the back leg used?	158
B. New sparring techniques.....	158
I. Attack and Counterattack Techniques	158
Paltung chagi	158
Huryeo chagi	158
Yop chagi & Mirro chagi	158
Tactic (Yop chagi & Mirro chagi)	158
Same leg Double–Tripe Techniques	158
Familiar techniques with alternative uses	159
A technique that has been rarely used in WTF competitions	159
II. Defence and counterattack techniques.....	159
Hindering the opponent's attack	159
An opponent who keeps his/her front foot elevated	159
Indirect counterattack with Paltung chagi	159
Direct counterattack with Huryeo chagi	160
Defensive mistake	160
C. Strategy – Tactic	160
Sparring strategy	160
Effect of electronic chest protectors on athletes' tactic	161
D. The coach	162
Basic principles of coaching guidance	162
Adjusting coaching guidance	162

PRACTICE: KINESIOLOGY - KICKING

CHAPTER 8: KINESIOLOGY: FIGHTING STANCES

Kinesiology	168
The importance of kinesiology	168
Important conclusion	168
Improving Kinesiology	168
Warming up through Kinesiology	169
Tactic	169
Why is it wrong?	169
Bibliography	169
Fighting stances (seogi)	170
Introduction	170
General principles of fighting stances	170
Distance between legs	170
Leg width	170
Centre of gravity	170
Pre-extension of muscles	170
Tactic	170
Gaze	171
Practicing reaction and perception	171
Improving stance	171
Sparring efficiency	171
Hands and torso	171
I. Attacking stances	171
1. Classic attacking stance.....	171
Tactic	172
1.1. Adjusting classic fighting stance to electronic chest protectors	172
2. Prevalent attacking stance with the electronic chest protectors.....	172
Tactic	172
II. Defensive stances	173
1. Classic defensive stance	173
Tactic	173
2. Basic defensive stance – prevalent with electronic chest protectors	173
2.1. Basic defensive stance variation	173
Tactic	173
3. Defensive stance – variation.....	174
Tactic	174
II. Other fighting stances	174
1. Waiting Stance	174
Tactic	174

2. Resting Stance	174
Tactic	174
3. Personal Style – Particularities	175
Hands positioning.....	176
Introduction	176
Position of hands/arms in sparring	176
Variations in Hands Positioning	176
1. Blocking an attack to the front side of the chest protector (Paltung chagi, Dollyo chagi)	176
2. Blocking an attack to the back side of the chest protector (Paltung chagi, Dollyo chagi)	177
3. Blocking a Yop chagi attack to the front side (chest protector).....	178
Serious blocking mistakes	179
4. Blocking an attack to the head (from the side of the back)	179
5. Blocking an attack to the face (frontal).....	180
6. Blocking a Naerio chagi attack to the head	181
7. Blocking Dwit chagi.....	181
Mistakes in Hands Positioning	182
Hands are down too low	182
Tactic	182
Hands/arms are too high	182
Protecting the head	182
Blocking with the Front Leg	182
Opponent attacks with his/her front knee bent and raised (in a Yop chagi or Dollyo chagi motion)	182
Tactic	183
Serious mistakes	183

CHAPTER 9: KINESIOLOGY: STEPS AND CHANGE OF STANCE

Introduction	188
Tactic	188
Technical improvement	188
Practicing stepping	188
Categories	188
A. In-place steps and bouncing.....	189
Tactic	189
1. In-place bouncing	189
2. Bouncing with front leg retreat	189
3. Bouncing with simultaneous leg move.....	189
4. Legs approaching.....	189
5. In-place change of stance with two or three side switches	190
6. In-place change of stance, with a side switch from the side of the back.....	190
7. In-place change of stance with a sides witch, moving front leg first.....	190
Tactic	191

8. In-place change of stance with a side switch, moving back leg first.....	191
Tactic	191
9. One step forward – same leg returns to initial stance.....	191
Tactic	191
10. One step forward, sliding backwards	191
Tactic	191
11. One step forward from the side of the back – same leg returns to initial stance (360° rotation)	191
Tactic	191
12. One step forward from the side of the back, sliding backwards	191
Tactic	192
13. Combinations and improvisations with the above-mentioned tactics.....	192
B. Attacking step.....	193
Introduction	193
Basic Principles	193
Significant mistakes	193
Avoiding mistakes – proper technique	194
Tactic	194
1. Attacking steps - One Step.....	195
1.1. One step with a side switch.....	195
Tactic	195
1.2. One step forward with a side switch, indirect execution.....	195
Tactic	196
Variations	196
1.3. One slide forward without side switch	197
Tactic	197
1.4. One step forward, pivoting from the side of the back.....	197
Tactic	197
2. Two Steps.....	197
Tactic	197
2.1. Two steps forward, switching sides	198
2.2. Two steps forward, first one turning from the side of the back, second one straight forward.....	198
2.3. Two steps forward, first one straight forward, second one turning from the side of the back.....	198
2.4. Two steps forward, both from the side of the back	198
2.5. Combinations of steps.....	198
3. With Three Steps	198
3.1. “Running” towards the opponent.....	198
Tactic	199
3.2. “Running” towards the opponent while executing a third step from the side of the back.....	199
Tactic	199
Other attacking steps	200
4. Slight sliding of legs forward (rarely two slides).....	200
Tactic	200
5. Shuffling forward.....	200

Tactic..... 201

6. One to two slides forward, athlete supported on the back leg (taunting the opponent) 201

Tactic..... 201

7. Slowly reducing distance..... 201

Tactic..... 201

C. Defence, retreat & counterattack steps 203

Introduction 203

Technical components..... 203

I. In-place Defence Steps 204

1. Front leg retreat only (no side switch or body retreat) 204

Tactic..... 204

2. Front leg motion to the left-outwards (sideways) with a simultaneous pivot for a right spinning kick 204

Tactic..... 204

II. Retreat – Counterattack Steps..... 206

3. One-step Retreat..... 206

3.1. One-step retreat with a side switch 206

Tactic..... 206

3.2. Half-step retreat with a side switch 207

Tactic..... 207

3.3. One-step retreat momentarily turning the back 208

3.4. One-step retreat with a slide (no side switch) 208

Tactic..... 208

3.5. Shuffling backwards..... 208

Tactic..... 209

3.6. Retreat with 2 to 3 slight slides 209

Tactic..... 209

3.7. Retreating by slowly increasing distance 210

Tactic..... 210

4. Two-step Retreat 210

4.1. Two-step Retreat (up to 3, like running backwards)..... 210

Tactic..... 210

4.2. Steps combinations 210

CHAPTER 10: KINESIOLOGY: FEINTS

Introduction 214

Tactic..... 214

Technical components 214

Shout..... 214

Realistic feint..... 214

Connecting feint and attack 214

Effect of one (single) feint on the opponent 215

Effect of a double feint on the opponent	215
Feinting Distance	215
Conditions for successful feints	215
Analysis of feints	216
1. With a back knee motion	216
Tactic	216
2. With a hip (pelvis) motion.....	216
2.1. Feinting Paltung chagi.....	216
Tactic	217
2.2. Variation of the previous feint.....	217
2.3. Feinting Dwit chagi	217
Tactic (Techniques 2.1., 2.2., 2.3.)	217
3. With a simultaneous front hand and leg motion	217
3.1. With a motion towards the opponent, reducing distance	217
3.2. With a motion towards the opponent, returning to initial stance but without shortening distance	218
Tactic	218
3.3. With a motion towards the opponent, reducing distance and retreating immediately	218
Tactic	218
4. With a simultaneous legs and hands motion	218
4.1. Gaining some distance	218
4.2. Returning to initial stance	218
Tactic	218
4.3. With an intense in-place motion (back and forth).....	219
5. Lifting the back leg with the knee bent, sliding with the other leg, and landing forward	219
5.1. Back (right) leg shuffles forward in a Mirro chagi like motion.....	219
5.2. Back (right) leg executes a Naerio chagi-like motion	219
Tactic	219
6. Lifting the front leg with the knee bent, sliding with the back leg and landing forward	219
6.1. Front leg rising in Mirro chagi stance	219
Tactic	220
7. With a simultaneous torso and hands motion	220
7.1. With a simultaneous hands and torso motion forward	220
Tactic	220
7.2. With a simultaneous in-place torso and hands motion.....	221
Tactic	221
8. Ap chagi & Bituro chagi Feint.....	221
8.1. With the back leg directly towards the opponent.....	221
8.2. With the front leg in a sprint-like motion.....	221
8.3. Bituro chagi feint with the front leg.....	221
Tactic	221
9. Feint for Dollyo chagi.....	222
9.1. With the front leg in a sprint motion	222
9.2. With the front leg in a sprint motion and two slides	222

10. Feint for Yop chagi.....	222
10.1. Sprint Yop chagi feint, or sliding with the back leg and Yop chagi attack.....	222
10.2. Sprint Yop chagi feint, or sliding with the back leg and Dollyo chagi attack.....	223
11. Feint for Paltung chagi	224
11.1. Sprint Paltung chagi feint, returning to initial stance.....	224
Tactic	224
11.2. Sprint Paltung chagi feint, shortening distance	224
11.3. Paltung chagi feint with the back leg, landing forward	224
Tactic	225
11.4. Triple step, Paltung chagi feint with the front knee, and jumping Dwit chagi.....	225
11.5. Triple step, Paltung chagi feint with the front knee and jumping Bandal Dollyo chagi	225
Tactic (Techniques: 11.4. & 11.5.)	225
12. Single Paltung chagi feint like a “scissor”	225
Common mistakes	226
Tactic	226
13. Double Paltung chagi feint like two “scissors”	227
Common mistakes	227
Tactic	227
14. Step feint – turning from the side of the back.....	227
Tactic	227
15. Jumping - turn - Paltung chagi feint	228
Tactic	228
When and how this feint is used in sparring	228
16. Feint for Dwit chagi	228
16.1. In-place pivoting (360°)	228
Tactic	228
16.2. Shortening distance with two jumping steps and an attack.....	229
Tactic	229
16.3. Dwit chagi feint (attack slide), kicking right away	229
Important technical detail	230
17. Attack to the chest – eyes fixed on the opponent	230
18. Attack to the head looking at the opponent’s chest protector.....	230
19. Improvisations.....	230

CHAPTER 11: KINESIOLOGY: SIDEWAYS MOVEMENT

SIDEWAYS MOVEMENT.....	238
Introduction	238
Effect of sideways movement on the opponent	238
Advantages and effect of sideways movement on our athlete	238
Technical components	238
Tactic	239

Sideways movement in sparring	239
A. Changing positions within the contest area	239
Tactic	239
Changing stance with a sideways	240
1. In-place change of stance with a sideways movement (reverse П shape = _).....	240
Tactic	240
2. In-place change of stance and side switch with an “Λ” shaped movement.....	240
Tactic	241
3. Sideways movement to the right	241
4. Sideways movement in right direction (frontal) with 2-3 regular steps.....	242
5. Sideways movement in left direction (towards our athlete’s back) with 2-3 steps	242
6. Moving with 2-4 lateral “slides” turning the chest protector towards the opponent	242
B. Sideways movement as an attack tactic.....	243
7. Sliding forward (also as a feint) and shuffling to the right	243
Tactic	243
8. Right step forward (also as a feint), sliding on the left.....	243
Tactic	243
9. Diagonal sprint Paltung chagi with the front leg	244
Tactic	244
10. Attack Paltung chagi with torso rotation to evade the opponent’s (Paltung chagi) counterattack	244
Tactic	244
11. Attack Paltung chagi, rotation-ducking of the torso and lateral evasion of the opponent’s (Bandal Dollyo chagi) counterattack.....	245
Tactic	245
12. Diagonal attack forward to the left	245
13. Feinting (eliciting the opponent’s reaction) and attacking.....	246
Tactic	247
14. Three feint lateral steps, executing Bandal Dollyo chagi.....	247
Basic conditions for successful execution	247
15. One step sideways to the right with the back (right) leg, executing jumping Bandal Dollyo chagi.....	248
16. Three steps (one forward and two sideways) landing powerfully.....	250
Tactic	250
C. Sideways movement as a Defence – counterattack tactic	251
17. Shuffling 45° to the right, diagonally and backwards.....	251
Tactic	251
18. Shuffling 45° to the left, diagonally and backwards.....	251
Tactic	252
19. Front (left) leg movement directly sideways to the left, at a 90° angle	252
Tactic	252
20. Left leg movement sideways to the right	253
21. Lateral step and a “scissor” like – right Paltung chagi counterattack	253
22. Pivoting on the front (left) foot to the left.....	254
Tactic	254

23. Retreating with a sideways “zigzag” movement 254
Tactic..... 255
 24. Retreating backwards with any step, evading sideways to the left or to the right 256
Tactic..... 256
 D. Practicing sideways movement as a counterattack technique 256
Training method..... 257

CHAPTER 12: KINESIOLOGY: CLINCHING (IMMOBILIZING THE OPPONENT)

CLINCHING (IMMOBILIZING THE OPPONENT) 264
Introduction..... 264
Tactic..... 264
Technical execution 264
Conditions for successful clinching-immobilizing the opponent 265
 Clinching in sparring 265
 1. Opponent attacks with right Paltung chagi 265
 1.1. Evading and clinching..... 265
 1.2. Blocking (with left hand), punching (with right hand) and clinching 266
 1.3. Blocking (with the left hand), punching (with the right hand), clinching, and counterattacking 267
 2. Opponent attacks with left Paltung chagi..... 267
 2.2. Blocking (right hand), punching (left hand), and clinching 267
 2.3. Clinching while slightly hopping..... 268
 2.4. Blocking (with right hand), punching (with left hand), Paltung chagi, and clinching 268
 2.5. Blocking, punching, clinching, Paltung chagi and moving away from the opponent..... 268
 3. Opponent attacks with jumping-turn-Paltung chagi..... 268
 Tactic..... 269
 4. Opponent attacks with right Naerio chagi 269
 4.1. Evading and clinching..... 269
 Tactic..... 269
 4.2. Evading, punching and clinching 270
 4.3. Evading, Paltung chagi, and clinching 270
 4.4. Evading, Paltung chagi, punching and clinching 270
 5. Opponent attacks with left Naerio chagi..... 270
 5.1. Evading and clinching-immobilizing opponent 270
 5.2. Evading, punching, and clinching 270
 5.3. Evading, Paltung chagi, and clinching 270
 5.4. Evading, Paltung chagi, punching, and clinching..... 270
 6. Opponent attacks with right spinning kick (Dwit chagi or Bandal Dollyo chagi) 270
 6.1. Clinching to Dwit chagi 270
 6.2. Clinching to Bandal Dollyo chagi..... 271
 Tactic (6.1 & 6.2)..... 271

7. Opponent executes a penetrating or prolonged attack 271

7.1. Clinching-immobilizing opponent with front leg (and a punch)..... 271

7.2. Impeding an attack with the front leg (Mirro chagi) 271

7.3. Impeding an attack with a front leg kick (Yop chagi)..... 271

7.4. Impeding an attack with a small hop 272

7.5. Impeding an opponent’s attack with as small inplace hop and a front Yop chagi 272

7.6. Retreating once, halting on the spot, and clinching 272

7.7. Retreating once, halting, and moving forward..... 272

Tactic (7.6. & 7.7.)..... 272

Tactic (any variation of clinching “7”) 272

KICKS AND PUNCH

CHAPTER 13: KICKS: MIRRO CHAGI

MIRRO CHAGI (PUSH KICK)..... 280

Introduction..... 280

Tactic..... 280

Significant technical details 280

Common technique-tactic mistakes to be avoided..... 281

Mirro chagi attack 281

 1. Back leg Mirro chagi 281

Mirro chagi – technical attack variations 281

 2. One step forward and sprint-Mirro chagi 281

 3. One step behind the front leg and Mirro chagi..... 281

 4. Direct front leg sprint-Mirro chagi..... 281

 5. Front leg Mirro chagi and slide-shuffle of the support back leg..... 282

 6. Front leg Mirro chagi with 2-3 back leg slides..... 282

 7. After Mirro chagi 282

Mirro chagi counterattack..... 282

Mirro chagi – technical counterattack variations 282

 8. Mirro chagi with a slight slide-shuffle of the back leg forward 282

 9. Indirect Mirro chagi with a slide-shuffle backwards..... 282

 10. Ap chagi-like Mirro chagi 283

CHAPTER 14: KICKS: YOP CHAGI

YOP CHAGI (SIDE KICK)..... 288

Introduction..... 288

Tactic..... 288

Yop chagi attack..... 289

- 1. Direct back leg Yop chagi 289
 - Tactic*..... 289
- 2. Front leg Yop chagi 289
- 3. Double or triple techniques with the same leg, after Yop chagi 290

Yop chagi –counter-attack 290

- 4. In-place counter Yop chagi..... 290
 - In-place counter Yop chagi – variations* 290

CHAPTER 15: KICKS: BITURO CHAGI

BITURO CHAGI (FRONT OUTER KICK) 296

- Introduction*..... 296
- Characteristics and Advantages of Bituro chagi* 296
- Technical execution* 296

Bituro chagi attack..... 296

- 1. Back leg Bituro chagi 296
- 2. Front leg sprint-Bituro chagi..... 296
- 3. Front leg sprint-Bituro chagi to the head 296
- 4. Front leg Bituro chagi and sliding forward..... 297

Bituro chagi counterattack 297

- 5. In-place front leg Bituro chagi 297

CHAPTER 16: KICKS: PALTUNG CHAGI

PALTUNG CHAGI (FRONT DIAGONAL KICK) 300

- Introduction*..... 300
- Paltung chagi advantages* 300
- Paltung chagi disadvantages* 300

Paltung chagi attack..... 301

- 1. Back leg Paltung chagi..... 301
- 2. Back stretched leg Paltung chagi..... 303
 - Common mistakes (Techniques 1., 1.1., 1.2., 2.)*..... 303
- 3. Paltung chagi bringing leg back..... 303
 - Prerequisites for successful execution of Technique "3"* 303
 - Tactic*..... 303
 - Common mistakes* 303
- 4. Back leg Paltung chagi to the head 304
 - Tactic*..... 304
 - Common mistakes* 304
- 5. Front leg Paltung chagi with a shuffle-slide of the back leg 305
 - Tactic*..... 305

6. Sprint Paltung Chagi.....	305
6.1. Sprint Paltung chagi	305
6.2. Sprint Paltung chagi from the opponent's side.....	305
Tactic	306
6.3. Sprint Paltung chagi to the head	306
6.4. Double sprint-Paltung chagi (right–left leg to the chest protector).....	306
Technical execution	306
6.5. Double sprint-Paltung chagi (chest protector - head)	307
Tactic	307
Common mistakes (Sprint-Paltung chagi, Techniques 6.1. - 6.5.)	307
7. Same leg double Paltung chagi to the body (landing).....	307
Variations: same leg double techniques – kicking combinations	308
Tactic	308
Common mistakes	308
Jumping - spinning - Paltung chagi (with the front leg)	308
8. Jumping - spinning - Paltung chagi.....	308
Variations of the Spinning Paltung Chagi Technique	309
8.1. Spinning Paltung chagi – on the ground.....	309
8.2. Jumping - Spinning - Paltung chagi from a close distance	309
Tactic	310
8.3. Jumping - Spinning - Paltung chagi covering longer distance.....	310
Tactic	310
8.4. Jumping - Spinning - Paltung chagi with a Dwit chagi feint	310
Tactic	310
8.5. Jumping Spinning Paltung chagi attacking the head.....	310
Tactic	311
Common Mistakes (in every jumping spinning Paltung chagi variation)	311
Paltung chagi counterattack.....	312
Back leg Paltung chagi	312
9. Back leg Paltung chagi with return	312
Tactic	312
10. Back leg Paltung chagi retreating with a shuffle	312
Tactic	312
11. Back leg Paltung chagi, shuffling sideways and backwards with a jump.....	313
Tactic	313
Common mistakes (in Techniques 10., 11.)	313
12. Back leg Paltung chagi with a sidewaysforward motion	314
Tactic	314
13. Right back leg Paltung chagi like "scissor" with a small right step sideways	315
Front Leg Paltung chagi	315
14. (In-place counter) Paltung chagi, landing forward	315
Technical details	316
Tactic	316

Common mistakes (Techniques 14., 14.1., 14.2., 14.3.)..... 316
 15. Double direct and indirect Paltung chagi counterattack 317

CHAPTER 17: KICKS: DOLLYO CHAGI

DOLLYO CHAGI (ROUNDHOUSE KICK) 326
 Introduction..... 326
 Technical execution 326
 Execution with three main variations..... 326
 Tactic..... 326
 Dollyo chagi attack 328
 1. Dollyo chagi Attack 328
 2. Back leg Dollyo chagi, support leg sliding towards the opponent 328
 3. Front leg Dollyo chagi, support (back) leg sliding-shuffling forward 328
 4. Sprint Dollyo chagi..... 329
 5. Spinning-Dollyo chagi (on the ground / jumping)..... 330
 Tactic..... 330
 6. Same leg double or triple Dollyo chagi..... 331
 Dollyo chagi counterattack..... 331
 7. In-place front leg counter Dollyo chagi..... 331
 8. Front leg counter-counterattack, slightly shuffling and retreating with the back leg 332
 9. Jumping-spinning-Dollyo chagi counterattack, after a retreat 332
 Common mistakes in every Dollyo chagi variation..... 333
 Bibliography..... 336

CHAPTER 18: KICKS: NAERIO CHAGI - AN CHAGI - BAKAT CHAGI

NAERIO CHAGI (VERTICAL KICK) 338
 Introduction..... 338
 Technical variation..... 338
 Naerio chagi linked injuries 339
 1. Injuries to the biceps femoris 339
 Treatment..... 339
 2. Injuries to the support leg knee..... 340
 Treatment..... 340
 Biomechanics Analysis (Biokinetic)..... 340
 Naerio chagi with bent knee..... 340
 Naerio chagi with stretched knee 340
 Naerio chagi attack..... 343
 1. Back leg Naerio chagi..... 343
 2. Back leg Naerio chagi with a slide of the support leg 343
 3. Front leg Naerio chagi..... 343

4. Front leg sprint-Naerio chagi 344
Tactic..... 345

5. Spinning Naerio chagi 345
 5.1. Spinning Naerio chagi (on the ground)..... 345
 5.2. Spinning Naerio chagi (jumping) 345
Tactic..... 345

Naerio chagi counter-attack 346

6. In-place front leg counter Naerio chagi..... 346
Tactic..... 346

7. In-place back leg counter Naerio chagi (on the ground) 346
Tactic..... 346

8. In-place back leg counter Naerio chagi (jumping)..... 346
Tactic..... 346
Common mistakes in every Naerio chagi variation 347

CHAPTER 19: KICKS: DWIT CHAGI

DWIT CHAGI (SPINNING KICK)..... 354
Introduction 354
Dwit chagi advantages 354
Dwit chagi disadvantages..... 354
Technical execution 355

Dwit chagi –attack..... 357
 1. Dwit chagi Attack..... 357
 2. Dwit chagi with a slide-shuffle of the support leg 357
Tactic..... 358

Dwit chagi counterattack..... 358
 3. Dwit chagi counterattack 358
 4. Dwit chagi with a 360° rotation (in-place) 359
Tactic..... 359

5. Dwit chagi with leg returning to initial Fighting Stance following the same route 359
Tactic..... 359

6. In-place Dwit chagi counterattack 360
 6.1 In-place Dwit chagi with a leg switch 360

Tactic	360
6.2. Jumping Dwit chagi to the chest protector (inplace)	360
6.3. Jumping Dwit chagi to the head (in-place).....	360
Tactic	360
7. Dwit chagi with a simultaneous retreat	361
Tactic	361
8. Jumping Dwit chagi to the chest protector with a simultaneous retreat	361
Common mistakes in every Dwit chagi variation	362

CHAPTER 20: KICKS: HURYEO CHAGI

HURYEO CHAGI (WHIP KICK)	366
Introduction	366
Disadvantages of Huryeo chagi in sparring	366
Huryeo chagi – attack.....	366
1. Back leg Naerio chagi.....	366
2. Front leg Huryeo chagi with a fast step of the back leg	366
3. Front leg sprint Huryeo chagi	367
4. Same leg Huryeo chagi and Dollyo chagi.....	367
5. Same leg Huryeo chagi to the head and Yop chagi to the chest protector	368
Huryeo chagi counter-attack	368
6. Front leg direct Huryeo chagi	368
7. Front leg Huryeo chagi to the chest protector	368

CHAPTER 21: KICKS: BANDAL DOLLYO CHAGI

BANDAL DOLLYO CHAGI (HIGH SPINNING KICK)	372
Introduction	372
Adjustment of Bandal Dollyo chagi to electronic chest protectors regulations	372
Bandal Dollyo chagi with knee stretched	372
Bandal Dollyo chagi with bent knee	372
Traditional Bandal Dollyo chagi	373
Technical variation with knee stretched.....	373

Second technical (sparring) variation disadvantages	375
Technical instructions on the second sparring variation	375
Bandal Dollyo chagi attack	376

1. Bandal Dollyo chagi.....	376
2. Bandal Dollyo chagi with slide-shuffle of the support leg	376
Tactic	377
3. Bandal Dollyo chagi and Dollyo chagi	377
Tactic	377
Bandal Dollyo chagi counterattack.....	377
4. In-place Bandal Dollyo chagi pivoting on the front foot.....	377
Tactic	378
5. In-place Bandal Dollyo chagi switching legs	378
Tactic	379
6. Jumping Bandal Dollyo chagi with simultaneous retreat.....	379
Tactic	379
7. In-place jumping Bandal Dollyo chagi.....	379
Tactic	379
Common mistakes in every Bandal Dollyo chagi variation	379

CHAPTER 22: KICKS: DOUBLE KICKING TECHNIQUES

DOUBLE TECHNIQUES	384
Introduction	384
Technical execution	384
Alternating legs	384
Same leg kicks repeatedly	384
Tactic	384
A. Techniques: alternation of kicks.....	385
B. Techniques: repetition of same-leg kicks.....	385
I. Kicking leg landing	385
II. Consecutive kicks, kicking leg not landing	385

CHAPTER 23: KICKS: TRIPLE KICKING TECHNIQUES

TRIPLE KICKING TECHNIQUES	390
Introduction	390
Tactic	390
A. Techniques: alternation of kicks	390
B. Techniques: repetition of same-leg kicks	390
